

Dear industrial members,

Do you have a project or an internship to propose to a student? We can advertise it to the academic members of our network to find the right student for your organization.

Please fill in the following and send back to Space Innovation.

Your project/internship Title

Contact information

Your organization	<input type="text"/>
Your department	<input type="text"/>
Name	<input type="text"/>
e-mail	<input type="text"/>
Phone	<input type="text"/>

About your organization

Talk about your company and its principal activities

Context of the project / internship

Mention the needs/challenges and the general context of the project

Objectives

Describe the main objectives of the project/internship

Required skills

Briefly mention the skills (hard, soft) that the student should preferably have for the good proceeding of the internship/project

Deliverables

Mention what are the expected deliverables in the form of products / documents / sources files at the end of the projects.

Place of work

Project/internship location

Preferred timeframe

When would you like this project / internship to happen?

Remarks

General remarks, as possible salary, if work permit is needed, etc.

Space Campus

The Space Campus is a cooperation with the Space Domain of the Swiss Armed Forces to promote student projects and internships. Please let us know if you believe this project/internship can be part of the Space Campus. We will coordinate with our colleague.

Yes, this can potentially be a Space Campus project / internship

No, this is not for Space Campus

I do not know

Image

Any image that can help promote your project / internship

The Space Innovation team hopes that this can advance your goals whilst fostering the next generation of space professionals.

Please save and send back to info@space-innovation.ch or martine.harmel@epfl.ch

